Registration information: Columbia Bulletin, Vergil, or the Barnard Registrar.

Required Texts: Kontakte: A Communicative Approach.

Terrell/Tschirner/Nikolai. 8th Edition, 2017.

Course Goals:

Upon completion of German UN1101, students who have attended classes regularly and successfully completed all assignments and ALL exams (with a minimum grade of B) should be able to:

- provide basic information in German about themselves, families, interests, likes and dislikes, daily activities;
- understand and participate in a simple conversation on everyday topics (e.g., weather, meeting people, school, shopping, etc.);
- read edited texts on familiar topics, understand the main ideas and identify the underlying themes;
- pick out important information from a variety of "authentic texts" (e.g. menus, signs, train schedules, websites, but also newspaper articles and simple literary texts, etc.);
- begin to follow film material, identify chief characters and plots, as well as positive and negative critiques on popular German films;
- fill in forms requesting information, write letters, notes, or messages providing simple information;
- provide information about German-speaking countries (e.g., geography, weather, du/Sie distinction, customs);
- use and understand a range of essential vocabulary related to everyday life (e.g., days of the week, colors, numbers, months, seasons, telling time, foods, names of stores, family, transportation, etc.), and
- pronounce German well enough and produce German with enough grammatical accuracy to be comprehensible to a German speaker accustomed to speaking with non-natives.

LEARNING DURING THE PANDEMIC

While this class is a rigorous academic course, it is clear that all of us are dealing with anxiety, stress, uncertainty, trauma, and grief to varying extents, and there may be unforeseen disruptions in our lives. Our goal is to create a culture of flexibility and care in our class community, and we believe such a culture builds upon consistent engagement, empathy, and clear communication. We will try to create channels for these and model expectations, but we will also rely on you to help build our community and provide feedback so that we can make adjustments when needed.

ONLINE ENVIRONMENT

Course Format:

This course is taught fully online. Online communication during course times will be synchronous using Zoom with active and collaborative teacher and student interaction. In addition, there will be a number of asynchronous resources and assignments allowing for self-paced learning. Online assessment will occur both synchronously and asynchronously. Canvas will be our primary portal for all interactions and course materials. Portions of the meetings may be recorded with your permission. If you have any problems concerning the technology, or the course in general, please let us know as soon as possible. We will agree on a backchannel to use, should we encounter problems with Zoom.

Technical Components:

The following will be necessary for your active participation in this course:

A laptop or tablet with a keyboard.

Adequate bandwidth for audio and visual participation via Zoom.

Access to Canvas.

Headphones with microphone are highly recommended.

If you encounter any problems, please let us know.

Online Etiquette:

Professional behavior norms benefit both students and instructors. Find an appropriate and quiet spot to join class that will allow you to actively participate in the synchronous portions of the class. We understand that you might be faced with challenges in this respect and we ask that you communicate with your instructor to find solutions. Also, please dress appropriately as you would for a face-to-face class.

Let's be aware that the online nature of interactions can have an impact on how we perceive each other and sometimes send the wrong impression, for example: how far or close we are sitting from the screen, the lack of real eye contact, the use of gestures which might not always be seen, facial gestures that might seem ambiguous, technological problems (e.g. audio), and problems with lag and synchronization. All of these factors can affect our interactions and our awareness of them can lead to overall more successful communication.

OTHER HOUSEKEEPING INFORMATION

Columbia and Barnard Policy on Academic Integrity:

The Columbia and Barnard Policy on Academic Integrity forbids students to hand in work (homework, vocabulary lists, essays, etc.) that has been edited by a tutor or in any way authored or rewritten by someone other than the student. It is crucial that all work is completed by the students themselves and reflect their personal language level. Please note that extensive use (= translation of a sentence and/or more) of a translation tool such as Google translate violates academic integrity. If you feel you need tutoring, speak to your instructor or contact Jutta Schmiers-Heller (js2331) at Columbia or Irene Motyl-Mudretzkyj (imudretz@barnard.edu) for Barnard for permissible tutoring guidelines. Please also visit the following websites on academic integrity and the honor code:

<https://www.college.columbia.edu/academics/academicintegrity>

<http://www.college.columbia.edu/honorcode>

Learning preferences and accommodations:

We acknowledge in our courses that people learn in different ways. For example, having visuals to support text may work better for some students, whereas others learn better by listening to the instructor. Please talk to your instructor about your learning preferences, so we can make the course work as well as possible for everyone. If you have, or suspect, a disability of any kind, please be sure to contact the office of disabilities (see link below) so that accommodations can be put in place. The earlier we know about it the better it will work.

Academic, Mental, and Physical Support:

Student life can get very intense, especially during this time. If you feel that you need help in any way, please don't wait but act immediately. Let your instructor know that you are struggling. Most importantly, contact your Dean/Advisor to ask for help. Below are online resources to help you:

German Grammatical Gender:

Nouns in German have a gender (masculine, feminine, or neuter) that often does not obey any apparent logic. The German language also assigns humans a gender, and German is not special for having a rigid binary gender system. Pervasive gender normativity is reflected in our use of language, and language instruction is one of the spaces in which such traditional structures are reinforced. At Columbia and Barnard, we strive to be respectful and inclusive. Whereas we still need to learn language in its normative form, we encourage you to be aware of the implications of such norms and to be attentive to your classmates' and instructors' desires. Please contact your instructor right away should you have any preferred name and/or preferred pronoun by which you would like to be addressed. Although there are limitations to what the language allows grammatically, the German Department faculty and staff are committed to finding solutions that work for everyone.
