

German UN2520 Intermediate Conversation Frühling 2025

Intermediate German Conversation
TR, 10:10-11:25pm

Instructor: Jutta Schmiers-Heller
Office Hours: TBA
Email: js2331@columbia.edu

COURSE PREREQUISITES:

Desire to speak lots of German! Students in Intermediate Conversation should have completed the equivalent of two semesters of college German or placed at the Intermediate level at Columbia. This conversation group is designed for students are either taking Intermediate German I or II and would like additional practice or who take only this class because they wish to maintain their spoken German.

The course is designed to improve your ability to speak and understand and manage German in everyday situations; to provide opportunities to participate in conversational situations on any topics you are interested in; to strengthen and acquire skills to understand German spoken at normal conversational speed; to expand active and passive vocabularies speaking skills; and to maintain a certain level of written German through short written activities. This is a 2-point course and does not count towards the language requirement. No textbook required.

An electronic version of this syllabus will be available under: <https://germanic.columbia.edu>

Registration information: Columbia Bulletin, Vergil, or the Barnard Registrar.

COURSE GOALS AND SESSION FORMAT

Course goals:

- 1) to improve your ability to speak and understand and manage German in everyday situations;
- 2) to provide opportunities to participate in conversational situations on any topics you are interested in discussing such as:
 - a. Deutschland, Österreich und die Schweiz - gestern und heute
 - b. Geschichte der deutschsprachigen Länder (z. B. die Wiedervereinigung)
 - c. Deutschsprachige Nachrichten, Musik, Literatur, Politik
 - d. Deutschsprachiger Film
 - e. Grammatik Wiederholung
- 3) to strengthen and get skills to understand German spoken at normal conversational speed;
- 4) to expand active and passive vocabularies (through a collective vocabulary list using a google doc) and speaking skills.
- 5) to maintain a certain level of written German through short written activities, such as reactions to topics/texts and a weekly journal.
- 6) review and further practice grammatical topics of your choice.
- 7) to practice presentational skills through individual and group presentations.

Session format:

Class sessions will consist of a variety of activities throughout the term, including:

- 1) daily warm-ups concentrating on every day needs and community building;
- 2) vocabulary practice (collaborative vocabulary list) through activities or Kahoots, e.g.
- 3) paired or small group conversations and interviews on a variety of topics;
- 4) dialogs/role plays based on everyday situations and videos;
- 5) student presentations, reactions to and discussions resulting from presentations;
- 6) web /audio-visual presentations;
- 7) discussions of short readings on a variety of topics;
- 8) web-based reports by individuals and/or small groups.
- 9) work with various media as they relate to the topics you choose.

SEMESTERPLAN:

Class content is student-driven and consequently there is no pre-set weekly plan. You as students get to determine together which topics you would like to explore and we will develop our plan together. Our topics and achievements will be documented throughout the semester in a retro-active weekly plan and we will be able to see what we have accomplished by the end of the semester.

ENGAGEMENT:

Stay engaged, proactive and communicate with your instructor. The more you engage and ask questions, the more you will learn. Engagement inside and outside of class is expected and counts significantly toward your grade.

HOMEWORK:

The goal is to keep homework at a reasonable level; however, there will be some homework assigned. Homework is scheduled to align with the content in the class. Day to day homework affords further practice and is usually due before next class. Other assignments, such as the oral presentation, have a bit more flexibility. If you are unclear about requirements or assignments, contact your instructor as soon as possible. Don't wait until after a deadline. Late homework: Homework must be submitted on time in the format requested (paper/electronic) in order to be graded as complete/full credit. You will lose 5% for each day it is late. After 10 days your homework will no longer be accepted.

ATTENDANCE:

Your attendance at every class meeting is important. Frequent or extended absences impede development of oral/aural skills and will lower your grade or jeopardize your success in class. You will be allowed two unexcused absences. Each additional unexcused absence will result in lowering your final grade by 1%. If you cannot attend in person due to sickness, an unexpected family or personal matter, or a religious holiday, discuss strategies with your instructor. Be proactive. If you know you will be missing a class, it is your responsibility to let your instructor know in advance and arrange for any homework to be made up.

DEVICE POLICY:

The use of electronic devices, including but not limited to smartphones, tablet computers, and laptops, is generally prohibited during class sessions. While it is important to know how to use relevant permitted electronic resources as you learn the language, e.g. dictionaries, class time is limited and face-to-face interactions with peers and instructors are a priority. Your instructor will inform you in advance if this policy will be overridden for classroom activities supplemented with the use of a device.

ACADEMIC, MENTAL, AND PHYSICAL HEALTH

Student life can get very intense. Please take care of yourself. If you feel that you need help in any way, please don't wait but act immediately. Let your instructor know that you are struggling. Our goal is to create a culture of empathy and care in our class community, and we believe such a culture builds upon consistent engagement and clear communication. We will try to create channels for these and model expectations, but we will also rely on you to help build our community and provide feedback so that we can make adjustments when needed. Most importantly, contact your Dean/Advisor so they can help you. In addition, visit Columbia's/Barnard's websites to know what services are available to you:

LEARNING PREFERENCES AND ACCOMMODATIONS:

We acknowledge in our courses that people learn in different ways. For example, having visuals to support text may work better for some students, whereas others learn better by listening to the instructor. Please talk to your instructor about your learning preferences, so we can make the course work as well as possible for everyone. If you have, or suspect, a disability of any kind, please be sure to contact the office of disabilities (see link below) so that accommodations can be put in place. The earlier we know about it the better it will work.

PLACEMENT EXAM

If you have prior knowledge of German, you need to take our placement exam, so we can help you to find the best level. You can find information on the test here:

Or you can contact Jutta Schmiere-Heller (js2331@columbia.edu) for Columbia and Erk Grimm (egrimm@barnard.edu) for Barnard.

COLUMBIA AND BARNARD POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Columbia and Barnard Policy on Academic Integrity forbids students to hand in work (homework, vocabulary lists, essays, etc.) that has been edited by a tutor or in any way authored or rewritten by someone or something other than the student. It is crucial that all work is completed by the students themselves and reflect their personal language level. Please note that extensive use (= translation of a sentence and/or more) of a translation tool such as Google translate or any AI tool, violates academic integrity. If you feel you need tutoring, speak to your instructor or contact Jutta Schmiere-Heller (js2331) for permissible tutoring guidelines. Please also visit the following websites on academic integrity and the honor code:

GERMAN GRAMMATICAL GENDER:

Nouns in German have a gender (masculine, feminine, or neuter) that often does not obey any apparent logic. The German language also assigns humans a gender, and German is not special for having a rigid binary gender system. Pervasive gender normativity is reflected in our use of language, and language instruction is one of the spaces in which such traditional structures are reinforced. At Columbia and Barnard, we strive to be respectful and inclusive. Whereas we still need to learn language in its normative form, we encourage you to be aware of the implications of such norms and to be attentive to your classmates' and instructors' desires. Please contact your instructor right away should you have any preferred name and/or preferred pronoun by which you would like to be addressed. Although there are limitations to what the language allows grammatically, the German Department faculty and staff are committed to finding solutions that work for everyone.
